

It is with the greatest of sadness and shock that I have come to hear of this news. I will always remember Bp Grech as a man of passion for youth and people on the move. He was a fine advocate for the vulnerable. He had a charisma which was infectious and a humour which brightened up people's lives whenever they were in his presence.

Pass on my sincerest condolences to his family and colleagues.

Clyde Cosentino
Former Director
Cmpc