A BRIEF HISTORY

Domus Australia was established by the Catholic Church in Australia, undergoing a 3 year restoration before it was formally opened by Pope Benedict XVI in October 2011. The historic building sits above Roman ruins and the careful restoration uncovered several examples of ruins that are now on display for guests to view.

Since its opening, Domus Australia has held a high ranking on Tripadvisor and received a '2014 Certificate of Excellence'. Many reviewers refer to this unique guest house as their 'home in Rome'.

ACCOMMODATION

Offering a peaceful, warm and friendly environment, the Domus Australia complex comprises four 'blocks' surrounding a central internal garden courtyard. The 32 bright and spacious guest rooms all have their own ensuite facilities.

The warm and tasteful furnishings are all of authentic Italian design with modern furniture designed to meet travellers' needs. Each room has extensive luggage storage and wardrobe space and bathrooms all have large showers with hairdryers, toiletries and hotel-style amenities.

Each room has large, shuttered double windows that open out and look over either the central courtyard or the street providing the opportunity to soak up the city's vibrant atmosphere.
